June 9-11 2017

Join us for a fun weekend at Kentuckiana Kampground! There is a LOT to do at Kentuckiana Kampground so bring your friends and family. They have two stocked ponds for bank fishing (please bring your own bait and tackle), playgrounds, bocce ball-court, asphalt basketball court, shuffleboard court, paved roads for walking through primitive area in the "holler", Bluegrass Creek 9-hole golf course is 6 miles away. On Friday June 9 join the campground for Bingo in the rec hall. Every Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. it's time for that good ole' country music with a free live stage show the entire family can tap their toes and clap their hands to.

For reservations, call the Kampground office at (309) 449-3274 or (309) 840-2234 during business hours 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday through Saturday. Let them know you are with FCRV. Sites are full hookup and cost $34 per night for 2 adults, children are free. There is a $2 per night charge if you run air conditioning. For more info about the campground visit <http://www.kentuckianahome.com>

We have two optional events that will require additional cost and RSVPs.

Friday June 9th—Peoria Chiefs Baseball:

On Friday Night Matt & Marla will be going to the Peoria Chiefs Baseball Game. (Class A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals). Anyone that would like to go must call for your own tickets, 309-680-4000 tell them you are with FCRV section 113, tickets are $12.00 +10.00 parking. We will car pool to split the parking fee. Matt has put several seats on hold in this section. Please E-mail Matt (4oldmatt@gmail.com) and let him know you are coming, after you have your tickets. Note that the Chiefs will have a firework show after the game for those who want to stay for that. Thank you Play - Ball

Saturday June 10th—Wildlife Prairie Park: Saturday morning we will be taking a trip to Wildlife Prairie Park, located just outside Peoria. We have arranged to make a donation from the ISA Wildlife Fund and will presenting this donation at 12:30pm after the 11:30am Guided Hike through Merrill Woods. There are other things to see and do for those not interested in the guided hike. Anyone who wants to visit the park and attend the presentation on Saturday will have to pay an entry fee . The cost will range from $4-$6 depending on the number of people who RSVP. Jill Serbousek will be collecting cash payment at the campground and we will car pool to the park on Saturday morning around 10:30am. We need to have a headcount the week before the event so please RSVP to jnsserbousek@gmail.com by June 1 if you plan to attend this event. For more information about the park, visit <http://wildlifeprairiepark.org/>
