April 2019

Where Strangers Become Friends & Friends Become Family!

State Director's Message Rob and Joleen Baker

Hope this finds everyone well and excited for the upcoming camping season. We are getting closer to that 2019 maiden voyage of us all heading out to the campground.

MARCH CAME IN AND WENT OUT LIKE A LION!!! We hope that you none of you were affected by the recent storms. There certainly is a considerable amount of damage and destruction in Nebraska and Iowa. We ask that you keep everyone in your prayers and please ask for help if you need it. There are shelters, donation sites and plenty of groups out there that are just waiting to assist the victims. If you have any ideas for assisting in clean up, donating, etc. please spread the word throughout our FCRV community. We are a great group when it comes to things such as volunteering our time and having a great work ethic. Those in need would certainly appreciate the help.

As you know, we had an impromptu meeting on March 23rd at the Anderson Library in Lincoln to help plan and organize our upcoming 2019 State/Fall Workshop. The "notes" will be included elsewhere in the Calling. We have a lot planned, and would ask that you contact Teresa Mathews or Jessica Baker as the Co-Chairs to volunteer assistance and ideas. We will be getting the registration form in the May Calling once we finalize camping fees and meal prices.

Food for thought... We understand that being part of an organization requires a certain amount of commitment. It is hard to make a commitment due to several things, i.e., financial situations; work commitments; just plain tired of having to plan, organize, and finalize gatherings; organizational activities outside the FCRV family; children and family activities, could probably go on and on with the list. As our members struggle to keep going, we need to consider bringing in "new blood" to help. Just as parents get older and we as their children typically pitch in to assist them, we ask that you look at our FCRV membership in the same manner. Please check out your communities for people who might be interested in joining FCRV. Get them excited about what we do and who we are. If you see an opportunity to start a conversation about FCRV with someone, take it!! Run with it! Stay in touch with that contact. Invite them to your campouts to check out your club and membership. You never know where it will go. It could be a new family for our great organization. Let's get excited about Nebraska's future in our organization and keep things going. We are heading in the right direction, slow and steady wins the race.

Take care everyone. We hope to see you around the campfire this season.

Reports . . .

State Chaplain Mert Feikert

Brrr- my feet are finally thawing out after going through the past month of temps below freezing. After being spoiled the past few years, it has been a little difficult for this old body of mine to once again readjust to typical Nebraska winters. However, I did survive, and am looking forward to the much warmer summer months ahead.

A twentieth century pastor and author named A.W. Tozer once wrote, "What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us.". The way we think, the things we do and say, determine how we approach all of life. If our heavenly father is truly in control of how we live our lives, then we will experience the hope, joy and peace offered to us because of our belief in Him.

We realize that our faith will be tested over and over again during our lifetime here on earth, but it is this testing that strengthens our belief and allows us to persevere.

James 1:vs 2,3

Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

We value our camping family and take strength in the friendships we grow in our lifetime here on earth.

Many things have changed in this world and nation over the past few years that have challenged us, and the way we think here in the heartland of America. All we need is to remember that the life we have here on earth will always be challenging, and that our Eternal Father has promised us a much better world in eternity.

Chapter News . . .

Courageous Ramblers

Because of the bad weather it has been hard to get together. We do keep in touch with each other by short visits and a lot of phone calls.

Pearl Shaw will celebrate her 95th birthday March 24th. We all wish her a happy birthday.

Mickey Hetrick is battling cancer so all prayers will be welcome.

Our snowbirds will be back the first part of April so we will be able to have meetings. We will all be glad to have them back home.

Everybody have a good meeting or campout.

Triple F Campers

Triple F met at Prehistoric Putt in March where our members played a very competitive match of mini golf. A highlight of the game was the hole containing a slide for the players to go down to reach the remaining holes. The warning posted at the top of the slide forbids players to take their golf club down the slide due to danger of impaling themselves. Luckily for some of us, there was also the option of walking down the steps. It was a great day and fun to try out a place we had never been to before.

We ended the day by meeting for dinner at Pizza Ranch where we also had our business meeting.

Mary Brashaw, Secretary

Triple F Campers are always looking for ways to give back to our community. After the terrible flooding that has devastated our area, we collected various items to donate to a local organization. We collected many items including snacks, toothbrushes and pastes, cleaning products, and the list goes on. We have a fantastic group of caring individuals. Here are a few pictures we took at Bellevue Christian Center. This is a central location for flood victims to gather whatever items they may need. The need is great, but so are our hearts. Keep the Heartland in your prayers...

Teresa Mathews, President

Heartland Runabouts

The Heartland Runabouts Chapter met at the La Mexicana restaurant in Grand Island on March 9th; 11 members and 1 youth attended. An excellent lunch was enjoyed by everyone. At the meeting the 2019 camping season was discussed. The Runabouts first campout for 2019 is scheduled for April 26 -28 at Fort Kearney.

Republican Valley Sodbusters

The Republican Valley Sodbusters FCRV chapter has been holding their luncheon meeting at various restaurants during the winter months. Though several of our members went to warmer climes for the winter, the hardy members stayed in cold Nebraska and kept the home fires burning. We are anxious for our snowbirds to return and entertain us with stories of their winter adventures.

In November we met at Pam's Cafe in Grand Island with Jim and Janet Staehr hosting the group. As the day turned colder the day hurried us home again.

In December we traveled to Paul's Cafe in Smith Center, KS to be hosted by Thaine and Donna Tomlinson for a pleasant afternoon.

The weather in January scared us out of meeting. Ah, Nebraska!

February found us meeting on a Monday at The Rose restaurant with Shirley Rippe hosting.

And in March Harry and Phoebe Sprague entertained the group at the Subway restaurant in Red Cloud.

We have been happy to have several former members who have had to give up camping join us for some of our lunches.

Our April campout will be held at the Nuckolls County Fairgrounds on April 16 – 18. That's a Tuesday – Thursday schedule which we are trying out this year. Always looking for more campers to join us.

Republican Valley Sodbusters Camping Schedule for 2019:

April 16 – 18 Nuckolls County Fairgrounds at Nelson

May 14 – 16 Crystal Lake

June 28 – 30 June Bug at Windmill Campground

July 16 – 18 Hebron City Park
August 18 – 22 Retirees Campout at Stromsburg Park
September 17- 19 Hunters Cove
October 15 – 17 Nuckolls County
Fairgrounds

Rollin' Turtles

Twenty-three Turtles attended our March meeting. We are proud to have a new couple attending our meetings in preparation for joining the club.

Our major business consisted of discussing all the proposed campsites that have now been flooded. After the mud settles in April we will select a new slate of sites. We suspect that available venues will be in great demand!

As usual on this date, the club gathered at Risky's Sports Bar for our annual St. Patrick's Day Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner following the meeting.
