June 2019

Where Strangers Become Friends & Friends Become Family!

State Director's Message . . Rob and Joleen Baker

Hi Ya'll. Well hopefully by now you have been able to camp with your groups at least once. It may be a little wet and/or cold but we are campers, we endure and overcome. Hoorah!!!! We hope the rest of the season will be a great one.

Still working out details for State/Fall Workshop. If you have any ideas or would do an activity for the group, please let Teresa Mathews mathews8010@msn.com or Jessica Baker night\_rose4806@yahoo.com know your intentions. June Bug is our first statewide event. As always, that one is in reliable hands. All we do is all show up and have fun. I am sure Marcia would appreciate a volunteer or two. Just let her know. Otherwise, come and enjoy the weekend.

We heard about some possible new members with the Runabouts, The Turtles, and Triple F. Fantastic news!!! Keep up the great work. We appreciate your efforts and want you to keep the momentum going.

Reports . . .

State Chaplain . . . . .Mert Feikert

I think that spring has finally arrived, anyway I sure hope so because I finally got some garden planted and really don't need any frost. It sure has been a busy spring even though the weather hasn't really been the greatest for camping or any outside work. However, we had a nice campout with the members of Triple F in Wilber the weekend of Gene's funeral. It was nice visiting with the members of Triple F, but also a little sad because we had to say goodbye to a good friend of FCRV.

Spring is also the time for graduations, and I'm sure that some of you have attended these ceremonies during the past few weeks. In one of Max Lucado's studies he refers to the moment of final departure from this earth as a graduation. Just as we look for better things to come when we graduate from High School or College, as Christians we should be looking forward to that time when we take our final breath and graduate into eternal life with our Creator. We really don't like to think about taking our final breath and leaving this world but, with the promises given to us by our savior, we know the best time lies ahead.

An old familiar hymn came to mind as I was writing this and I think that I will briefly share part of it with you:

*Oh, what a wonderful, wonderful day,
day I will never forget*

*After I'd wondered in darkness away,
Jesus my savior met*

Oh, what a tender compassionate friend,

*He met the need of my heart
Shadows dispelling, with joy I am telling,*

He made all the darkness depart

The hope, joy, and peace that I experience in my life is due to the fact that I finally met my savior. I hope that during the rest of my life I can pass Him on to others that I meet.

Making light of a sad day!

Joleen Baker

We camped at Wilber, NE the weekend of Gene Carriker's memorial service. We didn't plan it that way, it just happened to work out. We had Mert and Janene Feikert join Triple F that weekend as guests. They, along with Rob and me, planned on attending the services for Gene.

Rob and Mert were in the front seat shooting the breeze, and Janene and I were in the back seat. We were all talking about various things – not paying much attention to our surroundings. Next thing you hear is Rob say, "Are they after me?" Mert graciously smiled and said, "I believe so." We got picked up by the local Sheriff for speeding.

Janene and I are laughing in the backseat, Rob was a little nervous (not sure how fast he clocked him at) and Mert just sat there very quietly. The Sheriff was very nice, first thing he said was, "I bet you didn't expect to see me this morning." And, after a few minutes visiting, Rob asked him where he was "hiding." The Sheriff looked at him and laughed saying we met on the road (going opposite direction). Rob handed over the registration and proof of insurance while explaining who we were and why we were on the road so early. Pretty sure he was thinking WOW as he walked back to his car to check us out.

Coming back to the car, he was smiling, just looked at all of us and laughed along with us. Asked what church we were looking for and he gave us directions to make sure we found it okay. We could not have asked for better folks to get pulled over with than the Nebraska Chaplain and the Nebraska Photographer. Someone to pray over us and someone to snap our mug shots.

The part of the story that no one knows about is once we came home and unpacked and put everything away – there it was ... our updated proof of insurance that I had told Rob to put in his truck before we pulled left for Wilbur!!!! We could have been cited for no proof of insurance (thank goodness they have the means to check) plus received a speeding ticket on top of that! Must have been Mert's presence in the truck .

Communication from National by Shari Weber:

Camping season is in full swing! Hope everyone has had a great start even though it has been rather soggy in many areas. I have seen many of you having fun campouts.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

I have appointed and the trustees have approved the 2020 nominating committee. Positions up for election are President, Vice President Programs and Recording/Corresponding Officer. The committee is being chaired by Dave Ludwig, Past President from Region 2. Other members of the committee are from Region 3, Dale Huston, Region 4, Sue Carlsen, Region 5, Glen Dains and Region 7, Lou Acre. These are the people appointed to this task, however, they need your help. Please contact any of these people with recommendations for qualified people for these positions.

BUDGET MEETING

The trustees met earlier this month to make financial plans for our organization for the next fiscal year. Even though we have a planned deficit, there is no dues increase this year. Our comptroller, Jan Cushing also wants to remind you that all vouchers for expenses for the current year must be received by June 15th. Your voucher and copies of supporting receipts need to be sent to the person you report to for approval and sending on to Jan.

SURVEY

In early May you received an email survey regarding preferences for campvention. Many of you have already responded to the survey. Thank you. For those who have not yet responded, your responses are appreciated. We are looking at necessary and possible changes to campvention to make it more fun for all including our volunteers who are planning and putting on campvention. Your answers to the survey will help determine your desires. This survey is also being sent by email to members for their responses. The questions are simple to answer and will only take you a few minutes to complete. Your help is appreciated.

MEETING AT CAMPVENTION

There is still time to plan to attend campvention and the two day executive board meeting in Hutchinson KS. Many of you have already indicated your plans to be there. Thank you. Those who have not yet notified me of your plans please let me know so we can plan appropriately for you.

You will be reimbursed the early day registration fees for attending. These funds will be given to you at the break Sunday afternoon. If you attend both days, you will get both early day fees. If you are only able to attend one day, then you will only receive the one night. We will also have lunch for you both days. A schedule and agenda will be in the next update.

CAMPVENTION 2020

This campvention is being held in Brigen Ontario. Our Canadian members proposed that the fees for this campvention be in Canadian funds. This was approved by the Trustees and the rate set at $325 CDN. US members planning to register in Hutchinson for Brigen will need to bring Canadian funds. Because currency changes daily the amount in US dollars isn't certain but should be between $240 USD and $260 USD. A notice of this will be in June “Camping Today”, but feel free to tell other members so they can be prepared.

MEMBERSHIP

The good news is we are taking in more new members than we did for the same month last year. The other side of the news is that we are still losing members mostly due to aging and illness. The end of April showed the following increases in membership, by 1 new member California, Indiana, Minnesota, Quebec, Tennessee, by 2 new members New York, Pennsylvania, and by 3 new members Wisconsin. Many of the states and provinces not mentioned have remained the same over March. A lot of you are working hard on follow up gatherings after the RV shows. Thank you to all of you for helping with recruiting new friends.

“Come Camp With Us!”

Shari

June Bug . . .

Shirley Rippe & Marcia Whitmer

We are hoping you are making plans to attend June Bug – “Camping with Hattitudes” at Windmill SRA, June 28-30. Bring your favorite hat, decorate a hat or make a hat never before seen, wild, crazy, colorful or where ever your imagination leads.

There will be Root Beer Floats served by the Scholarship Committee. Water fights are must with Leonard and Rob, games, craft making, and an auction with baked goods, crafts and other items.

Mert will have a Sunday morning service.

Everyone is asked to bring a baked good or a craft to be auctioned off. The proceeds from the Food/Craft auction will be going to the Make -A-Wish foundation.

It would be nice to have an idea how many will be attending. You can RSVP

Marcia at switmer@neb.rr.com call or text 402-366-1918.

Come join the fun!

Fall Workshop . Donna Hansen

September 13-15, 2019

York, Nebraska

Bring an old T-shirt and scissors if you are interested in making a tote bag from it for the craft. See the schedule on page 8 for the time to participate, or check when you arrive.

Chapter News . . .

Triple F Campers

Triple F met at Wilber, Nebraska for our May campout. We were joined by our new members, Luke and April Kling as well as Mert and Janine Fikert. It's always good to see new faces among our group.

We took advantage of the annual city-wide yard sales taking place that weekend and brought home some great finds. The rest of the time was spent doing a potluck dinner and around the campfire in the evenings. Sunday morning we all headed over to the American Legion building for the great breakfast they serve every week.

All together this was a very enjoyable, laid back weekend to start off our new season. Next month will find us at Double Nickel near Waco, Nebraska.

Rollin' Turtles

Twelve members and two guests participated in our club campout at Victorian Acres in Nebraska City on May 16-19. Our next campout will be at Branched Oak June 20-23. It will be a Walking Taco dinner with campers bringing toppings and desserts.
