RECIPEEasy RV Dinner Ideas

Enter: the Instant Pot. Our Instant Pot earned its spot on our list of things you don't need in your RV but you'll be really glad you have. That's because cooking with one requires the same skill level as using a slow cooker (you literally just toss in a bunch of ingredients) but the pressure cooker function means in under an hour, you are sitting down to a hearty meal.

Our favorite way to use the Instant Pot when traveling is to plan for meals at home (and prep ingredients at home if possible). When we roll into our campground, I get the ingredients loaded and get the IP cooking while we continue to unhitch, level and set up the camper. By the time we are finished setting everything up, dinner that tastes as good as it smells is ready to eat.

Spicy Honey Instant Pot Chicken:

<https://temeculablogs.com/spicy-honey-instant-pot-chicken/>

4 Chicken breasts cut into bite size chunks	1 Tbsp brown sugar
3 Tbsp honey	1 Tbsp minced ginger
1.5 Tbsp minced garlic	1/4 cup soy sauce
1 Tbsp Sriracha or more if you want or less	1 Tsp Worcestershire Sauce
1/2 onion diced	1 Tbsp sesame seeds—optional to top
2 green onions—optional to top	2 Tbsp cornstarch

Put chicken chunks and diced onion into the Instant Pot. Mix all other ingredients (except cornstarch) well with a fork and pour on top of chicken. Close lid and steam valve and set Instant Pot to high pressure cook for 4 minutes.

Do quick release and carefully lift lid. Put some of the hot sauce in a small bowl with the cornstarch and whisk together, then add back into the pot and stir. Set Instant Pot to sauté, normal and let bubble for a few minutes.

Allow to sit for a few minutes so the sauce thickens.

Serve over rice or quinoa and enjoy!

Camp Stars Happenings for April

In April the Camp Stars travelled all the way to Boyd Lake (about four miles from my house as the crow flies). We had a really good turnout, and to make things even better the RV Rascals joined us on Saturday. As it turned out, there were at least four FCRV Chapters all camped there at the same time. The Camp Stars, The RV Rascals, Fun on Wheels, and the Stargazers. Everyone was anxious to get back together with friends we had seen very little of during the pandemic, and even more excited because our first outing scheduled in March was washed out by 25 inches of snow.

We had our first hike of the season on Saturday morning, and then just generally enjoyed the fellowship of friends all day long.

Then came the long awaited climax of the weekend; the first campfire of the year. Life doesn't get any better

CHAPTER NEWS

Camp Stars Happenings for May

In May the Camp Stars traveled to the Farmhouse RV Resort near Canon City. From the campground we had a view of the Royal Gorge Bridge, and because of my fear of heights, that was as close I wanted to get. Because of the distance from home most of us made it a long weekend, and the Joneses and Lantzes added several days at Mueller State Park to the agenda. During our weekend a number of us took a couple of hikes to stretch our legs. The campground is honeycombed with trails, and we just kind of wandered about. The second trail hike was the Tunnel Trail which was aptly named because there were three tunnels to walk through. We also saw about 6 big-horn sheep grazing near the trail. One of our primary purposes in going there was a train ride through the canyon on Saturday, and that was a very enjoyable experience accompanied by a nice lunch in the dome car. That night the campground hosted us to a wine social on their large patio (along with a gas fire pit so we sort of had a campfire). On Sunday a number of members went to a wine tasting party at the old Abbey in Canyon City, and while they were doing that the rest of us kind of wandered off and explored on our own.

Rolling Springs

This year has been a year of new territory. We have emerged from the grip of COVID 19.

January, February, March found gathering in local restaurants such as Silver Pond and Guadalajara Mexican Restaurant. The month of April we start back at camping for the first time.

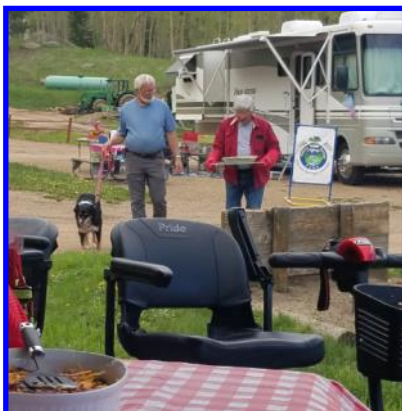

We enjoyed Mountindale Campground, our hosts had lined up Premier RV Repair to come and gave us a class on new ideas for RV maintenance. In May we have headed north in Elizabeth; the weekend gave us the chills. The weather was not going to give us a break and was cold all the time we were there.

June weather was super and so clean and fresh in the mountains at Aspen Acres in Rye CO. The sky was so blue. In the history of the Rolling Springs, we had the smallest campout with only four couples present. We had so much fun visiting, eating family style, touring, and getting decorating ideas for each other coaches, and sitting by the campfire.

Grateful for the chance to come once again to gather as a family. Looking forward to new adventures!

Roadrunners

With much sadness, letting you all know that Larry Trudell passed away on Wednesday, April 28. So loved Larry and his zest for life and camping, fishing, dancing, humor and his joyful laugh. Please hold Anita in your thoughts and prayers.

Roadrunners would like to share with you some special memories/pictures I have of Larry and Anita camping with our Roadrunner group over many years. We so loved them and missed them being with us the past couple of years. Our group is saddened by Larry's passing and we will miss his laugh, jokes, kindness and ever-so-giving spirit. Please let Anita know she is in our hearts.

Campfire Coyotes visit Art Cartopia

In May a resilient pack of 13 Campfire Coyotes weathered another shovel-breaking spring snowstorm at Lathrop State Park, then took shelter to brave tornado warnings at John Martin Reservoir State Park. Between Colorado weather events, we enjoyed touring the Art Cartopia museum in Trinidad, followed by lunch at Trinidad Smokehouse. Art Cartopia is an Art Car Museum that came about due to the success of ArtoCade, Trinidad's yearly art car festival. The museum is home to over 35 art cars and serves as a regional center of creativity and shenanigans.

And what is an Art Car? See... art cars are hard to define. Basically, an art car can take a variety of forms and the results are varied. Some are activist works, others are the result of amazing collaborations, and still others are sculptures on wheels. Many are simply wacky ideas created using found objects and made by "cartists". Creations may take days, months or years to complete. Many are street-legal and highway-ready, others are parade floats.

Our tour was guided by Rodney, who 'splained features and makings of the many whimsical, quirky, funky art cars on display in the free museum.

Find more Information on the Art Cartopia Museum and Artocade Festival at www.artcartopia.com.

Elderly Sleep Issues

Our bodies just aren't made to last forever. They wear out and that creates all sorts of issues; sleep disorders being just one of many.

As we age, we tend to need less and less sleep. For example, senior citizens generally require 30-60 minutes less sleep than those younger than them (MedlinePlus, U.S. National Library of Medicine). In addition to the duration of the sleep, sleep intervals are also shortened. It's not unusual for an elder to wake up several times per night for no apparent reason.

There are many, many reasons that sleep may be disturbed. In addition to simple age, some of those might include:

- Depression
- Inactivity (no regular exercise)
- Associated pain (i.e., arthritis)
- Medication side effects
- Use of alcohol or caffeine

Of course, when an elder complains of lack of sleep or appears more tired than usual it prompts a caregiver to consider a physician's visit, which is to be expected. A thorough exam with a complete history may show some insights as to the reasons for the poor sleep patterns. Yet, it is also likely that no one area will be identified as the cause, thus requiring a slow methodical elimination of potential causes; such as treating any chronic pain issues or reviewing and altering medications. It is also very important that solid information be obtained from the elder during this treatment period.

There are some simple, yet effective ways to improve one's sleep:

- Don't eat too close to bedtime
- Reduce the intake of alcohol and caffeine during the day, and especially just prior to bedtime
- Avoid watching TV in bed
- Increase your exercise programs (with your doctor's permission, of course)
- Try reading prior to bed
- Make certain you stick to a routine, i.e., getting up and going to bed at the same time every day

Obtaining the proper level of sleep can be difficult. All sorts of issues can invade our minds as we try to fall asleep at night. The aging process doesn't seem to cooperate with the sleep process very well.

Follow some of the easy tips mentioned above and hopefully sleep will once again be a pleasantry that you anticipate at the end of every day.

Take exit 269 B and head west on Colorado Highway 14 into Fort Collins. Follow the signs to U.S. Highway 287 north (about ten minutes). Take 287 north until you get to the northern edge of Fort Collins (about ten more minutes). Shortly thereafter, 287 will split off to the right to go to Laramie. Do not follow 287 at this point. Rather, continue straight into the town of Laporte. The second stoplight after this split will be Taft Hill Road (CR 19). Turn left onto Taft Hill Road (CR 19). Now get into the very first left-hand turning lane that you come to, which is about 1/2 mile down Taft Hill Road (CR 19). Turn left onto Lakeside Resort Lane and follow the concrete driveway straight through the gate.

STRAWBERRY BANANA FRENCH TOAST

For those that were at Spring Fling, you had a treat with Chef Mike Anderson.

He made this and a couple more breakfast items that will be shared in later editions.

INGREDIENTS:

1 1/2 cup milk
 2 eggs, beaten
 1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
 3 oz. cream cheese, room temperature
 8 slices bread, Texas toast style, about 1" thick
 2 bananas, thinly sliced
 1 cup fresh strawberries, thinly sliced
 4 tablespoons butter
 Powdered sugar
 Maple syrup or strawberry compote

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. In a shallow bowl, combine milk, eggs, nutmeg, cinnamon and vanilla. Set aside.
2. To assemble, spread a thin layer of the cream cheese onto 1 side of the bread slices. Top half of the slices with the fruit, reserving some for garnish. Place another piece of bread on top, cream cheese side down, creating a sandwich.
3. Preheat skillet or griddle on low medium heat. Brush with butter.
4. Dip sandwiches into the egg mixture batter, coating all sides.
5. Place on the skillet or griddle. Cook 3 to 4 minutes per side, then turn on the edges and cook to brown evenly.
6. To serve, garnish with additional fruit and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Serve with maple syrup or strawberry compote.
7. Enjoy!

Thank you Mike for sharing your talents and humor!
