From the State President

The Fall Invitational at Amishville was a really good time. If you didn't get enough to eat, that was your own fault. The trustees did a wonderful job hosting and feeding everyone. It was great to see many of our Michigan campers joining us also. Even if your camper/truck breaks down, just come "crash" with someone else!

After Amishville, Ed and I attended the work weekend for Campvention 2023 at the Wayne County Fairgrounds in Richmond. The workers attending got to see all the buildings and many of the activities locations have been determined. The 2 huge building are wonderful. Both are air conditioned and did I say HUGE. The grounds are very nice. You may want to bring a leveling board (which you should have in your camper anyway) and a Y and maybe extra hose for the water.

I want to thank everyone in Indiana that has stepped up to volunteer for a position at Richmond. It takes a village to host Campvention and we have a great village (with only a few village idiots, just kidding)!!

Other Campvention information: The last t-shirt order (Great Lakes and Campvention) is due to Connie Black by 1/30/2023. The parade theme will be "Great Lakes Rose Bowl". Parking will be straight hobo, which means you will be parked as you arrive. There is a staging area across from the fairgrounds with electricity if you arrive after parking closes or wish to wait for other campers to camp with. Campers with no facilities will be parked close to restrooms. As of that meeting there were 31 units registered with 2 extra families (9 of the 31 are first timers).

Hello,

I would like to thank my trustees for helping to put on a successful Fall Invitational. All members that attended didn't go away hungry.

We showed what kind of a camping family we are by inviting Eli to join our festivities. He is a young man camping on his own throughout the United States. We offered him popcorn that evening and he joined us for breakfast Sunday morning. He was interesting to talk to and we enjoyed his short overnight visit. We passed his name and information on to Pat at the National office as he was from New York.

Hopefully you all survived Halloween with all the ghosts, ghouls and goblins; and I hope you all received more treats than tricks. Which moves us on to our next holiday, Thanksgiving.

Things to be thankful for; new slate of officers to guide us through the next 3 years. A full camping schedule starting with the spring, April 21-22-23 at Wayne County Fairgrounds in Richmond. The summer campout, August 11-12-13 with grounds to be determined. Fall Invitational Sept 29-30, Oct 1 at Amishville Campground in Geneva. And another item to be thankful for is all the worker/volunteers that have stepped up to work at Campvention 2023 in Richmond.

So when visiting with your family and friends over Thanksgiving, try not to stuff yourself like a turkey!

Save travels to all the snowbirds,
Until next Chatter..

Ed Shaneyfelt.

Hi again,

I would like to thank everyone who brought caps, tabs and anything else that was donated for Riley Hospital.

We had a good turn out for the walk up the hill to get popcorn.

And last but not least I would like to Thank the state for the donation for Riley Hospital!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

By Harlan Nigh

Hello Camp Family,

As October closes and the children collect candy, the camping season comes to a close for most of the area.

Time to winterize, repair, improve the rigs. Now we enter the season of giving thanks, and preparing for the Christmas Season. Time with family and indoor fires (for those of us with fireplaces.)

So for now, lets think of fun activities for our coming year.

Until we meet by the campfires again. God Bless Y'all

Harlan Nigh ✝️ 📺 🙏

Retiree director

Patti Thieme

Hi there,

This is hoping that everyone had a HAPPY HALLOWEEN and did not get too much candy.

Now I hope that everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving and enjoys the fellowship with your family.

As for the retiree campout, there was a good time had by all.

We went out to eat on Wednesday night at Kuhn's Den, and then went back to the campers to enjoy our heat.

We got up to eat sausage and egg sandwiches made by Ron Cohee and Mark Shaneyfelt to start the day on Thursday. Later that day those who wanted to go made a field trip to Troyer's market. Other's went on their own adventures and did some sightseeing in the area.

Thursday night a meal was provided of ham, baked beans, macaroni and cheese, and fried potatoes. After supper we had homemade ice cream, which Mark Shaneyfelt and Deena Felver cranked hard to make, there were a lot of different cake options to choose from as well. We celebrated Mark Shaneyfelt's 80th and Diane Jones' (Michigan) birthdays.

Then we had our meeting, during which we elected new officers. Our new officers are:

- * Ron Cohee (President)
- * Mike Rausch (Vice President)
- * Marilyn Rausch (Secretary)
- * Patti Thieme (Treasurer)

On Friday breakfast was provided again and we just enjoyed each others' company and waited for the rest of FCRV to arrive to start the Fall Invitational.

Patti Thieme

On a serious note, Nationals is looking for 3 positions to be filled for the election 2023. The nominating committee is looking to fill: Vice President of Planning & Development, Comptroller and Vice President Operations. If you know of anyone interested, or if you are interested yourself, please let me know and I will put you in touch with the persons on the nominating committee.

It is a long time until the Spring campout!

Until we all meet up again,

Angie Shaneyfelt

The Value of Gratitude

DASAT MOMENT

By Marilyn Rausch

It doesn't seem like it should be this way, but Thanksgiving is the official start of one of the most stressful times of the year. At the same time, studies have shown that one tool to reduce stress is GRATITUDE.

Why would that be? Gratitude, a "state of thankfulness," can build emotional resilience, fight negative ruminations and pessimistic thoughts, and help us to stay grounded, even in harsh situations. It helps us to identify and focus on solutions rather than problems, and can even regulate our metabolic functioning and control hormonal imbalances.

There are two critical chemicals in our brains (serotonin and dopamine) that are responsible for our emotional well-being. They enhance our mood and help build inner strength to combat stress. By consciously practicing gratitude every day, we can help strengthen the release of these chemicals.

For some people, gratitude seems to come naturally. But like any skill, it takes practice to cultivate and make it flow!

Here are some suggestion on how to stay grateful on a regular basis:

- Keep a "gratitude journal."
Take 5 minutes every night to think about one thing you are thankful for and write it in a notebook. Share your notes with someone, focusing on the positive. Reread your journal often, "lest you forget."
- Say "thank you."
Once a month, send someone a thank you note for something specific or for just being a friend. Occasionally write one to yourself! If you don't have time to write, at least mentally thank someone, recognizing the gift that they are in your life.
- Appreciate the little things in life.
Focus on the positive interactions that you have with others. These don't have to be dramatic. A smile, a kind act from or for another person, opening a door or helping someone carry a heavy load, a small donation to the "little red bucket" or to some cause that helps others...these are things that can give you that positive burst of gratitude.
- Forget the material things you don't have or need.
It is said that the richest people are not those who have the most but those who need the least. Advertisers and social media try to convince us that we can be happy if we only had this or that thing. Unfortunately, that is not the case...things are never enough, and the satisfaction of accumulating "stuff" quickly passes.

Consider what is most important in your life...

- Identify and combat stress before it overcomes you!
We can't always control the things that create stress in our lives. There are early physical warning signs: irritability, loss of focus, muscle tension, emotional lability. Teach yourself to see these for what they are. Stop what you are doing. Close your eyes and breathe deeply. Put your mind in control again (that is what "counting to ten" helps do). Think of one or two things that you are grateful for. Put the current stress in perspective.
- Exercise regularly.
Yes, for some, the thought of exercise is a stressor in itself. But it has been proven that working out not only helps improve your physical health, but also supports your mental well being. Everyone can exercise at some level, even if it is doing stretches while sitting in a chair or "chair aerobics." (There is a plethora of videos on YouTube to help get started.) Not only does exercise give you a break from other stressful activities, but it supports those stress-relieving chemicals we spoke of before!
- Meditate.
Meditation is a time of quieting the mind and body and removing negative thoughts and impulses. For those who have a spiritual base in their lives, meditation can be in the form of quiet prayer. For some it may take the form of listening to quiet music, focusing on a candle or on nature, doing yoga.

When it comes to stress and gratitude, we have a choice. We can be the victims of our busy lives, letting our circumstances and our minds overwhelm us. Or we can take charge of how we respond to those circumstances by focusing on the positive aspects of life. This does not mean we become "Pollyanna" and ignore the reality around us. Nor does it mean that we need to face life's challenges on our own. In fact, it is through our relationships that we become strengthened and anchored. For many of us, that strength and anchor comes from our spiritual faith in a personal God on whom we can lean for support. For others, that anchor may be within family and friends. For all of us it is based on the awareness of all in our lives for which we can be grateful.

If we focus on these thoughts, perhaps Thanksgiving Day would be the start of a season not of stress but of true Gratitude.

Chapter Campouts

We invite any chapters who have planned their upcoming campouts and would like to invite others to join them to list them here in the CHATTER. Likewise, if you are looking to camp with friends (or people who will become friends), check out these listings!

We also welcome any reports and/or photos from your campouts. What a better way to advertise the heart of Indiana's Family Campers and RVers???

Recipes worth Sharing!

SWEDISH NUT CAKE

INGREDIENTS

For Cake:

- 2 eggs
- 2 c. all-purpose flour
- 2 c. granulated sugar
- 1 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2/3 c. chopped nuts
- 20 oz can crushed pineapple with juice.

For Frosting:

- 8 oz. cream cheese, room temp.
- 1/2 c butter, room temp.
- 2 c. powdered sugar
- 2 tsp. vanilla

For Topping:

2/3 c. chopped nuts.

PREPARATION:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F.
2. Mix cake batter ingredients together by hand and pour into a 9x13 baking dish.
3. Bake 30-35 minutes (inserted toothpick comes out clean)
4. Beat together butter and cream cheese for the frosting. Add powdered sugar and beat until smooth.
5. Spread frosting over cooled cake and top with nuts.

PECAN PIE BARK

INGREDIENTS:

- 13 Graham crackers
- 1 cup unsalted butter
- 2 cups pecan halves, roughly chopped
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

PREPARATION:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Line a rimmed sheet pan with aluminum foil or parchment paper.
2. Lightly grease the foil or paper with butter. Cover the sheet with graham crackers, breaking them when necessary to make them fit.
3. Combine butter, brown sugar, pecans and salt in a medium saucepan over medium heat. Bring to a boil and let cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly.
4. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Immediately pour hot mixture over crackers and spread mixture to the edges of the pan using a spatula. Make sure pecans are evenly distributed and the crackers are covered.
5. Bake until bubbly, about 10 minutes. (they do burn easily)
6. Allow to cool completely and then break into pieces. Enjoy!!

NATIONAL NEWS:

STATE DIRECTOR: Angie reported that the campvention is in Richmond, Indiana, in 2023. Dates are July 9th thru 14th 2023, with early days being July 6th and 7th. She also said that if we mail in the registration form and pay before Dec. 31, 2022, the cost will be $310.00 after that date it will be $335.00. Angie commented there are order forms in the Chatter for campvention t-shirts. She also noted that since our region is putting on the nationals next year there will not be a regional in 2023.

Angie mentioned that Misty is to be checking into Bill Monroe's for a conservation/clean up weekend since they are a commercial member.

Angie passed out the membership anniversary awards as follows:

Gena Ison 15 years
Misty Stuckwisch 15 years
Dennis and Cindy James 25 years
Bo and Doris Gries 25 years
Della Cloyd 45 years
Petsy Thacker 50 years

CAMPVENTION DIRECTOR:

The 2024 campvention is going to be held in New York. Ed stressed that everyone should try to attend Richmond since our region is hosting.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:C.A.M.P., TABS, RILEY, and RETIREES:

Patti Thieme reported:

- The camp walk was Saturday evening and the group walked to the top of the hill to get popcorn or caramel corn made by the campground.
- Thanks for all the tabs and caps that everyone has donated. We did find out that the plant that makes the recycle benches was bought out by someone else and is still going to make benches, so keep saving caps.
- Riley report; thanks for the items that were donated. The items will either be donated to Riley at Indy or Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne.
- The Retirees had a good time with 21 people attending. We went out to eat, made homemade ice cream and celebrated birthdays.

CHATTER, PHOTOGRAPHER:

Reported by Marilyn Rausch: The chatter has only 1 person that receives it by mail and that all articles are due by the 28th of the month. Marilyn reported that she is behind in getting pictures uploaded to the website, she is going to work on that this week.

CHAPLAIN: Harlen Nigh said he had nothing to report.

YOUTH/TEENS and CONSERVATION:

- We had 1 teen and 2 youth that attended the camp out.
- Misty said she will call Bill Monroe's Campground this week to see about doing the clean up camp out and if we help may get a night free.

MEMBERSHIP: Denise said that she is contacting different places online and in person and getting no feedback from anyone.

BUDGET/AUDIT: Mike said that after the audit the records balanced.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Ed Thanked the trustees for putting on a great camp out. We had 19 units with 4 second families and 4 units from Michigan that enjoyed the fun.
- The campout dates have been set for next year:
 - ⇒ Spring April 21-23, 2023 @ Richmond Indiana hosted by Ed and Angie Shaneyfelt. It falls the same weekend and location as the Campvention work weekend. 191 made motion to accept and northern rep 2nd. Motion carried.
 - ⇒ Summer is Aug 11th thru 13th 2023 @ Terre Haute Indiana hosted by Marilyn/retirees. Grounds are to be determined by Thanksgiving. 200 made motion to accept and 108 2nd. Motion carried.
 - ⇒ Fall invitational will be Sept. 29th thru Oct 1st 2023 @ Amishville Geneva Indiana. The retiree's will arrive on Sept 27th, 2023. Past President made motion to accept and 2nd by 197. Motion carried. It was also said that if you wanted same site to let Deena know, and she will let campground know to reserve the sites for next year.

Denise asked if we could put the weekend schedules of upcoming campouts in the chatter, so we know what to expect at the camp outs.

There were no donations or raffles and no other new business.

The treasurer made a motion to adjourn the meeting and 191 2nd. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 8:46p.m.

HOOSIER CHATTER Advertising Policy

The Hoosier Chatter accepts advertisements at the rate of $5.00/column inch/issue for commercial advertisers and $3.00/column inch/issue for personal advertisers. There are significant discounts available for multiple issue ads. These advertisements are open to any business or individual, but will be screened to assure they are appropriate to the goals and philosophy of the Family Campers and RVers.

Inclusion of an ad in the Hoosier Chatter does not imply official endorsement by the FCRV, the Indiana State Association of the FCRV, or of the Hoosier Chatter.

The deadline for ads and articles in the Hoosier Chatter is the 25th of the month preceding the issue month.
