

MISSOURI CAMPER

CHAPTERS OF FAMILY CAMPERS AND RVERS

Volume 28 Issue 1

Spring 2023

Message from the President

Greetings to everyone from those of us on the western side of Missouri.

Presuming that you didn't head south to a warmer climate last Fall, we hope that you've been enjoying the weather we've had this winter. Seasonably warm and wet has been the rule. I bought myself a new electric snow thrower back in December. Tired of the annual fuel, maintenance, and storage issues of my old Toro thrower. So far, my new thrower has yet to face a flake of snow. With not quite three weeks till Spring and the Winter we've had, it's conceivable that it won't get plugged in until next year. Anyhow..... If you winterized your RV and stored it away last Fall, it's now time to be thinking about what needs to be done to it and what needs to be checked or replaced to again make it functional, safe, and roadworthy for the upcoming travels that you have planned for 2023.

The first big trip for many of us will be to the 2023 International FCRV Retiree Rally in Dothan, AL. It's being held at the National Peanut Festival Fairground and is set to run from Tuesday, March 28th to Sunday, April 2nd. Early days are from Friday, March 24th to Monday, March 27th. As has been noted in years past, you don't have to be retired to attend this rally. If you have some Spring vacation time available, everyone there will be glad to see you.

Shortly after you get home from Alabama, you need to get ready to leave again for MSCA's own Spring Campvention. This year it is going to be held on May 5 – 7, 2023.

And we've changed locations. This Spring, we are going to be at The Great Escape RV Park and Campground in Higginsville, MO. As has been said before, if you have the time available, you can easily set your reservation so that you can go in a day or two early &/or stay a day or two later. It makes all the packing, driving, set-up, and then teardown all the more worthwhile than just camping the "official" 2 nights. And while we're mentioning reservations, hopefully yours were made last year. Campground prices were subject to change after January 1st. And hopefully again, you saw the email that was sent out last November about Spring Campvention. Beth Standiford sent it out on my behalf on November 25, 2022 to all MSCA members. It recaps everything we knew at that time about dates, rates, facilities, and reservations. A link to the campground website was also included. If you can find it without too much trouble, you might go back and reread it in the next few days. You might notice something you overlooked in November.

Coming up in July, FCRV will hold their 63rd International Campvention in Richmond, IN. It's being held at the Wayne County Fairgrounds and Expo Center and is set to run from July 9 – 14, 2023. Early bird days are July 7 & 8. Campvention has been discussed and will continue to be discussed in greater detail each month between now and July in each issue of FCRV's newsletter, Camping Today. Registration forms can be found in the back of each issue.

Have a Happy St. Patrick's Day and a Blessed Easter. And we'll close again by hoping that you stay warm, stay dry, and have safe travels wherever you may go.

A new feature in the FCRV website is the Adult Activities section. These are a complete set of official rules for any FCRV event.

Some of your old favorites may have changed and there are some new games added to hopefully become your new favorite camping pastime.

All games listed now have a CAMP value so check with your CAMP Director to see if your event qualifies for CAMP certificates.

We are ready for some camping. But to help us through till then, the Slow Travelers from the east side of the state will be getting together for a dinner at one of the local restaurants. We will do some catching up and I'm sure there will be plenty of laughs and camping talk. Many of the Slow Travelers will be heading to the Retiree Rally in Dothan, Alabama in March and then on to Gulf Shores for two weeks. Remember, you don't have to be retired to attend the rally. It is so much fun.

We won't be back for very long and we will be attending the MSCA campout at Higginsville. Then on to Topeka Kansas where we hope to catch up with our fellow FCRV friends from there. Our group has had some health scares and family deaths. I want to say that I and the group are so thankful for our Camping family. That includes all our state chapters and friends from other states as well. Even when not camping we keep in touch with each other. We are a caring bunch. As we begin the camping season, safe travels, happy camping and see you around the campfire.

April Fool's / Easter Lathrop Campout Mark Your Calendars!!!

By Sheila McMillen

Greetings! I wanted to reach out and invite you and your camping friends to our Lathrop Campout at the Lathrop Mo. Antique Showgrounds April 21-23 2023 for the kickoff of our summer camping season with our April Fool's/Easter Campout. This location is unique, we have an area to camp, but also are able to utilize the building on the property for our meals, time to visit, play games, and get out of the weather to come together.

Friday evening we come together to enjoy a potluck meal and greet those as they arrive, and play a few games of white elephant bingo, then enjoy some time by the fire sharing stories and getting to know each other. On Saturdays, we play family games if you choose, Easter egg hunt for the kids, visiting, and potluck in the evening. then a campfire.

These showgrounds have some unique /antique buildings on the property to walk around, but are not unlocked unless that is something we would request. Lots of history on the grounds. We also have Shatto

Dairy about 15 miles from the showgrounds that offers great milk, shakes, and just a visit to their facility. I'm not sure how familiar you are with the area, but aside from these 2 places, some have even taken a Saturday to go to Jamesport to shop or hit Kearney to check out Jesse James Birthplace.

I spoke to Shatto Dairy, and they are open for us to come over on Saturday, April 21st, 1-3 p.m. They will have their country store open for samples, also see where cheese and butter are made. As well as an ice cream/shakes and a milk bar. They also have the calf barn we can walk through. There is no charge to come over, just cost for ice cream and etc purchases. They have lots of great items.

There are lots of areas nearby to explore, but aside from what the area has, we would like to invite you to mark your calendars and come camp with us and check out the area in April, we'd love to have you. The fee for camping is $25 a night and a $5 registration fee, so 2 nights is $55.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to me at pak.n.go@mofcrv.org!

Feed My Sheep

By Beth Standiford (MSCA Chaplain)

In the past few years (sheesh! Where did time go?) I have posted page long musings on faith and God. Along the way, I have picked up many memes, thoughts, one and two liners but not enough to expound upon and make an entire article. So, this month, I thought I'd put some of these thoughts all together for you to review. Please read them as individual thoughts as that is what they are. I hope at least one really hits home with you.

F.E.A.R. -- False Evidence of Appearing Reality.

EVIL spelled backwards is LIVE.
EVIL is meant to kill and destroy where LIVE is where God gives us life and hope.

Truly great friends are hard to find, difficult to leave, and impossible to forget.

Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death...

To forgive is to set the prisoner free, and then discover the prisoner was you.

When you were born, you were crying and everyone around you was smiling. Live your life so that when you die, you're the one who is smiling and everyone around you is crying.

When there is nothing left but God, that is when you find out that God is all you need.

Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away

People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.

Never underestimate the power of your actions. With one small gesture you can change a person's life, for better or for worse.

God puts us all in each other's lives to impact one another in some way. Look for God in others.

The best and most beautiful things cannot be seen or touched - they must be felt with the heart ~ Helen Keller

When someone hurts us, we should write it down in sand where winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But, when someone does something good for us, we must engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it.

Dear God: Please untie the knots that are in my mind, my heart, and my life. Remove the have nots, the can nots, and the do nots. Erase the will nots, may nots, might nots that may find a home in my heart. Release me from the could nots, would nots, and should nots, that obstruct my life. And most of all, Dear God, I ask that you remove from my mind, my heart, and my life all the am nots that I have allowed to hold me back, especially the thought that I am not good enough. Amen Author Known to God

Missouri State Director

Are you ready for some camping? In just a few short weeks we will be getting the motorhome out of storage and after a couple of days at Lake 370 we will be leaving for Dothan AL - the Peanut Capital of the World. Just typing this is getting me excited to begin this year's camping adventures.

I would like to point out a few changes to the 2023 schedule. In the last issue I reported that the Regional Campout was "tentatively" scheduled for Jun 27 - 30 at ABC Campground in Branson. That has changed. It will be held June 18 - 21, 2023 at Treasure Lake RV Resort in Branson MO. Check the Missouri Facebook Group for more details or send me an email and I'll send information.

In addition to the change to the regional campout, some other campouts have been added. Pitch 'n' Pull added three campouts and Area 1 Western Council added the April Fools Campout and the Halloween Campout. By my count there are 23 listings for campouts but since two of them are for early days let's drop that down to 21. And that is just in Missouri. If you are traveling and would like to camp with a chapter give the national office a call and ask if there are any state or chapter campouts in the in which you will be staying. The chapter campouts are no longer available on the fcrv.org website but national will be happy to give you the information.

One small item to mention is the pop tab and plastic cap collection at Campvention in Richmond IN. The following was published on the Campvention Facebook group a few weeks ago. This is a change from last year.

Pop tabs will be collected at Campvention 2023; they will be donated to Ronald McDonald House at the Riley Children's hospital in Indianapolis. If you choose not to haul all your tabs to Richmond, you may take them to a recycling center between now and the Campvention and get them weighed, obtain a receipt for pounds and the dollar amount. Then take the donated amount to your local Ronald McDonald House or similar charity. Don't forget to make a copy of the receipt and bring to Campvention to turn in to myself. Also, we collect plastic caps for benches. Indiana

FCRV members have purchased a few benches in the past in memorial of a FCRV member and placed the benches in those members' home towns or favorite campgrounds, or wherever that member wants to donate to. The list of caps include: water bottle caps, Gatorade caps, milk jug caps, butter bowl lids, cottage cheese lids and peanut butter lids to name a few. We will have containers for collection of these all week. Just put that plastic cap in your pocket until you pass one of our containers! You can also start saving now and bring with you. Go to www.greentreeplastics.com to find a complete list.

In the last issue I had asked all chapter presidents to send a list of their paid chapter members. To date only one chapter has sent that information. I need the information to verify that your paid chapter members are also paid FCRV members. Please send the list ASAP.

We have two new families in FCRV in Missouri, Kevin and Diane Harms camped with Gateway Campers twice and attended the Holiday party at Pizza Ranch in January. They joined FCRV in December 2022.

Doug and Nancy Seifert joined FCRV in February 2023 and are interested in camping with the Slow Travelers. They have not yet had an opportunity to camp with us since they just purchased their camper just before they joined FCRV.

Please make both of these families welcome in your usual FCRV family style.

And finally, make sure to set your alarm for 2:00 am on Sunday, March 12 so that you can get up and set all of your clocks forward by 1 hour.

Safe travels and God bless,

Paul Standiford
Missouri State Director
