CHAPTERS OF FAMILY CAMPERS AND RVERS

Volume 28 Issue 3

Fall 2023

Message from the President

Hello to everyone from the hot and very humid western side of our state. I realize that millions of other folks are just as uncomfortable as we are, but I notice that the oppressive humidity bothers me more and more with each passing year. Our plans to move away from our 5th wheel got altered a bit. This old guy isn't as comfortable as he once was dragging a 32', 12K pound trailer around anymore. We were originally thinking to sell it next spring and then buy something smaller to camp in. But I came across a local listing for a highly optioned, immaculate 2017 Flagstaff Shamrock expandable hybrid travel trailer. We pulled the trigger on the deal and are now working to get the old trailer ready to sell while getting the new one ready to camp in. Between the heat and the humidity, July and August 2023 is not the time to have taken on this project.

The 2023 National Campvention in Indiana is now a memory. I hope that everyone that decided to make the trip had a good time and feel that it was time and money well spent. September will hopefully be more comfortable, and we can all look forward to the traveling and camping that is on the Fall calendar. The next trip for most of us is the MSCA Fall Campvention. This will take place on September 22-24, 2023, at the Lazy Day Campground in Danville, MO. Many of us are going in a day early and some will stay a day later. If you have not already made your reservation with Lazy Day, you need to call Nancy at (573) 564-2949 soon. Richard message that reservations must be made with the campground no later than August 21st to get the group rate of $40.50 per night for full hookups plus a one-time $5.00 reservation fee. When making reservations, be sure and tell them that you are camping with MSCA.

This year, Saturday morning will be spent doing a Conservation service project at Graham Cave State Park by all MSCA members that care to participate. As Richard and Frances wrote in the Summer Missouri Camper, the project will be done in the cooler morning weather, and you will want to pack work clothes in your camper before you head for Lazy Day. The Director's meeting and the General meeting will be held Saturday afternoon. We will be discussing and then voting on where we want to hold the MSCA Spring and Fall Campventions for 2024. If there is a campground that you want to have considered, please come prepared with more than a name. Check on cost, if they have 20-30 spaces available, if there is a meeting room (and cost), and whatever reservation deposit they require etc. We will also have an election of MSCA officers for 2024. If you are willing to run for an office, please contact someone on the Nominating Committee (Pat Crow, Don Hopkins, or Dave Gish). prior to the September 23rd Board Meeting. New people are needed for the MSCA offices of President, Secretary, and 2nd Vice President. Also, please consider filling one of the vacant Program Chairman positions. This is a volunteer organization and volunteers are always needed. If you are interested in filling one of those, please contact one of the MSCA officers. It's a wonderful way to help the organization without having to run for an office.

And for one final time, I'm going to ask all of you to please stay safe, do try to stay cool, and do your best to have safe travels wherever you may go.

Missouri CAMP Director

Due to our conservation service project at Graham Cave State Park we will not have a C.A.M.P. Program at the September MSCA campout. Let's all get out and help spruce up our state park.

Pat Crow

Missouri State C,A.M.P. Director

Dave and I were unable to attend the Regional Campout in Branson and Campvention in Indiana. However, from the Facebook posts they looked like a fun time with lots of activities. I know the Slow Travelers and Gateway chapters were there in Indiana to represent for Missouri. The Slow Travelers are packing our aprons and chef hats and providing breakfast on Saturday morning at the MSCA campout. Menu-biscuits and gravy, sausage, eggs and fruit. We will also have a chapter meeting at some point. Among other things we will decide where to camp next year. Please have your suggestions ready for destinations, campgrounds and possible sightseeing ideas. I look forward to your ideas. After MSCA we will head to Amana Iowa. We invite everyone to come and camp with us. See you soon around the campfire.

Pat Crow

Slow Travelers President

South Central West Regional Director

Hello Fellow Campers!

It's been a very busy camping season already. I've attended the Missouri State Campout, Region 2 Campout, National Retiree Campout, FCRV National Campvention and YARS (Young Active Retirees) campout. Six units from Missouri attended the National Campvention in Richmond, Indiana. We had a great time. There were a lot of activities planned for the week, if you didn't want to partake – there was a lot to sight see in the surrounding area.

While I was at Campvention, I learned that our Region 2 will be hosting the 2025 FCRV National Campvention. I have formed a small committee, of which Paul & Beth Standiford, along with Don Hopkins (from Missouri) are a part, to help find a location. We are currently looking at 3 locations in our region. Once a location has been picked out and approved by the FCRV Trustees, we will then let our members know.

In the meantime, we need help from our Missouri State members to help plan for this endeavor. If you would like to help us with putting on the 2025 National Campvention, please contact Paul Standiford. We're just getting the job descriptions and reviewing them now. More will be coming out on what they are. However in the meantime, please contact Paul Standiford and let him know you're willing to help.

I will not be able to attend the MSCA State Fall Campout, due to another commitment. I will certainly miss my MSCA family.

Until the next campfire,

Debbie Ludwig

Feed My Sheep

By Beth Standiford (MSCA Chaplain)

“Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”
Luke 6:38

God provides all that we need, and He loves it when we share with others what He has so abundantly showered on us. We can be a blessing to others by giving with a thankful, cheerful heart in recognition of this. As we give, so we may reap. Giving unto others as you would have others give unto you. With so many individuals, groups, charities, organizations and communities how do you choose? Can an individual or small group and make a large impact or help a large organization to make an even bigger impact? Do you choose local or global? Regardless of which you choose, the giving will probably end up having an impact on you, the giver, as well. In thinking of the needs of others, we do, in effect, put ourselves in their place if only for a moment and that perhaps makes us more thankful for what we have been given.

God calls on all of us to love our neighbor as ourselves. If we were in need, we would want someone to help us.

Jesus is our greatest example of selflessness. Scripture is full of examples of Him serving others, up to and including the ultimate sacrifice of giving His life. We often get so caught up in our own needs and forget to think of others or look for ways to serve like Jesus.

In the past few years our organization has been very generous in supporting the Food Pantry at First Baptist Church of Montgomery, Missouri. They have moved and are now known as CRISIS FOOD CLOSET OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY and relocated to The Church of the Nazarene, 1012 S. Sturgeon Street, Montgomery City, MO. We even remember their pets and personal care needs (which are NOT covered by state programs). This Fall, I am looking for strictly cash or check donations to this organization as their staff is having some physical limitations at this time. See you all at the Fall Campout, Sept 22-24 at Lazy Day Campground and I thank you in advance for your generosity.

Lord, You gave the ultimate gift to us. May we give to others as a way of giving like You.

Campfire Cookies

These Campfire Cookies are really easy. I purchased plain, sugar cookies from the local grocery, chopped up gummy bears for the fire, added pretzel sticks and marshmallow pieces smudged by frosting. No bake, easy and fast. Enjoy.

Missouri State Director

Greetings to all our FCRV Missouri Campers. We are home for about three weeks. Thought I would take a bit of a break but that ain't happening. Instead I am working on this newsletter, the Camping Today newsletter, the upcoming booth at the Saint Charles RV Show and even starting to work on the team planning the 2025 Campvention which will be held somewhere in our Region. We are not sure where it will be held but watch for details as we get them.

I have not talked to the nominating committee yet so I don't know if they have people for all the positions that are going to be vacant. With that in mind, I am going to repeat part of what I wrote last month.

"At the Spring MSCA Campvention it was noted that multiple offices will be vacant. Please, please keep in mind that this is a volunteer organization. I know that everyone in the organization joined because they like camping and not because they want to take on a position within the organization. BUT, remember the old adage of many hands make light work. Is there work involved? Yes there is but not as much as you might think. And you don't need to do it all yourself. Most members will help if you ask them to do a specific task. The offices that will be vacant are President, Secretary, 2nd Vice President. A nominating committee has been formed so if/when you are asked to run for an office please consider giving some of your time to help this organization survive." The members of the nominating committee are Pat Crow, Dave Gish and Don Hopkins. Talk to them about what you can do to volunteer some of your time.

In the last newsletter I invited you to attend the 74th International Campvention in Richmond. We had six units from Missouri attending. What a great time we had. It was one of the best Campventions I have attended. There was so much to do that difficult choices were required. Do I go this seminar or the other seminar? What a great dilemma to face. Make plans to attend the 75th International Campvention in Frankfort NY next year. This is going back to the roots of NCHA / FCRV since NCHA was originally founded in New York state.

And speaking of Campventions, I mentioned in the first paragraph that planning has commenced on the 2025 International Campvention. We will be looking for volunteers. We will need a lot of help. So please consider saying yes when asked. Or better yet, Contact Don Hopkins, Beth Standiford, Debbie Ludwig or yours truly and JUST SAY YES to fun. I talked to a lot of people at Campvention this year and yes, maybe it was, in some cases, a lot of work. But they all said "It was a lot of fun."

And another opportunity for you to volunteer is at the Fall RV show at the Family Arena in Saint Charles. The show will be held September 8 - 10, 2023. The show hours are Friday - 10am - 8pm, Saturday - 10am - 8pm and Sunday - 10 am to 5pm. We will be looking for volunteers to staff the booth. Please contact Beth or me as soon as possible to volunteer. You should have our phone numbers or if you don't have our phone number send us an email and let us know what day(s) and time(s) you would like to help out at the booth. All you have to do is explain to people about FCRV and MSCA and tell them how much fun it is to camp in a friendly, family group.

I hope to see all of you at the MSCA State Campvention at Lazy Day RV Park. You can see the details elsewhere in this newsletter. It looks like a great fun-filled weekend. And don't forget to register for the Retiree Rally in Mineola TX. You don't have to be retired to attend.

I'll end this the same way I did in the last issue. Invite your friends to join FCRV or at least invite them to a campout. I know you all have friends that camp and most of you have camping friends that are not yet a part of FCRV. Share the fun!!!

Safe travels and God bless,

Paul Standiford
