Indiana State DirectorANGIE SHANEYFELT

Well, Amishville Fall Invitational is almost here. After that campout are the sad days of winterizing campers and putting them away for the season.

The "Sock Hop" is ready for Amishville. See the front page of this CHATTER for the full schedule of events. I will have awards for my membership celebrating an anniversary year. This year I don't have any Chapters receiving awards.

Make sure everyone is watching our Indiana Facebook page as Ron Cohee has all of the campouts for next year listed. Make sure when you are scheduling your chapter (and personal) campouts for next year you are scheduling around our state campouts. After all, you don't want to miss a state campout!

Speaking of Facebook, make sure you are following the Great Lakes Region page. We are hoping that all states get their events listed so we can cross-camp with our neighboring states. We have attended Michigan campouts that are closer to our house than some in Indiana! Ron Cohee is my Facebook "master" and will be getting our Indiana events on that page also. Thank you, Ron, for all you do for FCRV (Indiana and National).

Short and sweet article this month. See everyone soon at the Sock Hop!

Angie Shaneyfelt

Indiana State PresidentED SHANEYFELT

We have been busy since my last article. The planning for the Fall Invitational is done. Look on the front page of this CHATTER for the program.

You will be served Root Beer float pie for hospitality on Friday evening. Breakfast will be served Saturday morning before you have the opportunity to go to Troyer's Grocery store. We will serve Pancakes and sausage links.

Games, Bingo, and crafts will be available in the afternoon. For supper we are serving Hot Dogs and Sloppy Joes, Potato Salad, Cole Slaw, and chips. After Supper we will be doing the camp walk up the hill for popcorn.

After the meeting and presentation of awards, we will have our sock hop dance. Oh yeah, that is the theme of the campout "Sock Hop." Dig out the poodle skirts, saddle shoes, and hair gel for the dance.

Next year's schedule is set for the Spring and Summer campouts. The Spring Campout will be April 30, May 1,2 at Howard County Fairgrounds in Greentown. Denise McKerlie is hosting and it will be a murder mystery dinner. If she asks for your participation be nice and accept.

The Summer Campout will be August 19-22 at Cornerstone Campground in New Castle. The Glampers will be hosting with a baseball theme.

The weather is starting to get colder which means it is almost time to start thinking about winterizing the rigs. I am not looking forward to that because that means the season is over for most of us.

Until next time,

Ed Shaneyfelt

We are looking forward to seeing everyone next week at our state fall campout. It sounds like a fun time ahead!

I have activities planned for our youth theme for the 1950's! Hula Hoops, paper dolls, & Hopscotch are ahead!

Let's gather around the camp fire for one more time before the season ends. Bring your poodle skirt and join the party!

Happy Camping!

Hello Camp Family,

Well, the season is winding to a close. September 30th (the Retiree Rally) is the on our schedule, and the weather is showing signs of cold weather approaching. All in all it's been a very good year, with memories of adventures, some good others unexpected. As for us, it has been mostly enjoyable.

Now as we "winterize," let's see what plans we create for a fun and adventurous trips to share next year.

I pray that all your upcoming holidays are blessed with good cheer and loving family time.

Until we share another campfire, God Bless!

Harlan Nigh 🙏 🍂 🔥 ✝️ 😊

CHAPTER CHATTER*Coffee Pot Campers and Fireflies

Hello All,

The Coffee Pots and the Fireflies camped at Starve Hollow on Sept. 18-20th. There were five families in attendance.

Friday evening, we all went out for pizza. We had great conversation and fellowship. One of my highlights was having an in-depth conversation with Andrew (Nolan's and Stuckawich's great/grandson) on putting salt on his pepperoni pizza.

The evening ended with rain, which didn't light the humidity in the air. Saturday, the ladies gathered around some tables and made a small paper pad folio. We had awesome stories from "when I was a kid...." to plans to craft again next season.

In the background, the men were sitting in their lawn chairs talking...well I really don't know what they were talking about but I'm sure they had a good time .

The group put together a tentative 2027 camping schedule, which will be finalized at Amishville. We ended the evening supporting a local fire station by having dinner there. Some had half a chicken or pulled pork sandwich. We learned that they had put this on for many years. It was nice to see the turnout the community gave the fire station.

We all departed Sunday, looking forward to a great Fall Invitational at Amishville.

Until next time,

Stacy Davis

ADVENTURE

RECIPES WORTH SHARING

The Grilled George

A recipe from 12 Tomatoes.com
Finger sandwiches/ appetizers

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pound rotisserie chicken, shredded
- 3/4 c + 6 tbsp Mayonnaise
- 1/2 c celery, diced small
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 12 slices bacon
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 12 slices of brioche sandwich bread

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Prepare a sheet tray with a cooling rack over parchment.
2. Arrange bacon on rack. Bake for 25 minutes until crispy.
3. Combine chicken, 3/4 c. mayo, celery, salt and pepper in a bowl.
4. Divide the mixture onto 6 slices of bread, spreading corner to corner. Top with 2 slices of bacon. Top with remaining slices of bread.
5. Use 1 tbsp mayonnaise to coat the bottom and top of each sandwich in a thin layer.
6. Preheat a griddle over medium heat for 3 minutes.
7. Cook sandwiches for 2-3 minutes each side, pressing down lightly, until they are golden brown on both sides.
8. Remove to a cutting board. Trim the crusts and then cut each sandwich into 4 pieces.

GERMAN RED CABBAGE

“Sweet and Sour”

Some people suggest this tastes better if made a day ahead of time and then reheated.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium head of red cabbage (2 pounds), cored, thinly sliced or shredded.
- 2 tbsp. butter
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 large tart apple, peeled, cored and grated.
- 1/4 c red wine vinegar or balsamic vinegar
- 1/2 c water, apple juice, or dry red wine.
- 2 tbsp brown sugar
- 2 whole cloves (stick into small piece of onion)
- Salt and pepper to taste.

DIRECTIONS

1. Melt the butter in large heavy pot or Dutch oven over medium heat. Add onion. Cook until translucent (5-7 min). Add apple and cook for another minute.
2. Add shredded red cabbage to the pot. Pour in the vinegar, water (or apple juice or wine), brown sugar, cloves (stuck into a piece of onion) salt and pepper.
3. Cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and bring to a simmer.. Reduce the heat to low. Cook for 45-60 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add more water if it seems dry.
4. Remove the lid during the last 5 minutes if there seems to be too much liquid. Discard the cloves
5. Taste and adjust salt, sugar or vinegar if needed..

Before the power goes out

Recently, AES Indiana (our local power and light company) sent an email to its customers to suggest how to cope with possible power outages during storms. This is a summary of some of their recommendations.

At any time, but especially in the winter, power outages can be more than just an inconvenience. Being ready ahead of time for that possibility may limit the inconvenience or even could save your life. The suggested steps to take include

1. Prepare an emergency kit with essential supplies.
2. Make a plan of action ahead of time.
3. Keep informed.
4. Once power is restored, promptly refresh your emergency kit and assess for dangers and damages that may remain.

EMERGENCY KIT (Suggested inclusions, adapt to your specific needs.)

- Food that does not need cooking or refrigeration
- A manual can opener.
- Water--1 gallon/day/person, more if you have pets.
- First-aid kit and personal medications
- Flashlight and extra batteries.
- Battery-operated or crank-charged radio
- Extra Blankets.
- Cash
- Candles (battery operated are safest)
- Clothing and personal hygiene items.
- Specific items needed for babies, children, and/or pets.
- A list of important phone numbers

MAKE A PLAN OF ACTION

- Have a list of reliable people or places you can go if the power is out for an extended time.
- Have specific plans if someone has a medical condition that requires electricity for equipment (oxygen generator, sleep apnea, etc.) Ready.gov has resources to help make emergency plans for specific medical needs.
- Plug sensitive or critical equipment in the home, into a surge protector to prevent damage when the power returns.

- Check on elderly family members or neighbors who may need help.
- If you are outdoors, watch out for downed power lines and STAY AWAY.

KEEP INFORMED

- Keep your power company up-to-date on your contact information so they can contact you with critical information.
- Download mobile apps from American Red Cross or FEMA to help you stay informed.
- Have an emergency weather radio with battery back-up available.
- Have a battery- or crank-type radio available to receive alerts and information.
- Follow the directions of authorities for your area.

KEEPING FOOD SAFE DURING A POWER OUTAGE

- Keep thermometers in the refrigerator and freezer. Freezers should be at 0° F or below and the refrigerator should be at 40° or below.
- A refrigerator will hold temperatures safely for about 4 hours if the doors are kept closed.
- A freezer will hold temperature for approximately 48 hours if full and the door remains closed. (If only half full, drop that to 24 hours) Freeze leftovers, containers of water, or bags of ice to keep freezer full.
- If power is out for a while, 50 pounds of dry ice will keep an 18-cubic-foot freezer full for 2 days.
- WHEN IN DOUBT, THROW IT OUT! Never taste food to determine its safety. Discard refrigerated perishable food (meat, poultry, fish, soft cheeses, milk, eggs, leftover and deli items) after four hours without power. If freezer food contains ice crystals or is at 40° or below, it should be safe to refreeze or consume.

These recommendations are not all-inclusive, and are meant to get you thinking about problems before they happen. For more detailed information, visit ready.gov, where there is comprehensive information about any potential disaster.

CHAPTER CAMPOUTS

We invite any chapters who have planned their upcoming campouts and would like to invite others to join them to list them here in the CHATTER. Likewise, if you are looking to camp with friends (or people who will become friends), check out these listings!

We also welcome any reports and/or photos from your campouts. What a better way to advertise the heart of Indiana's Family Campers and RVers???
